THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) President Bush condemned the October 1 st terrorist attack in Kashmir and added that terrorism must end everywhere, and that includes in Kashmir.

(b) Government has adopted a well coordinated and multi-pronged approach for tackling the activities of militants which includes strengthening the border management to check illegal cross-border activities, gearing up the intelligence machinery, close interaction between different agencies of the Centre and the Various State Governments, neutralizing plans of militants and anti-national elements by coordinated action, modernization and upgradation of police and security forces with advanced sophisticated weapons and communication system etc. As a result of coordinated action, several terrorist modules have been neutralized.

Funds are also reimbursed as per norms to the States under the Scheme of reimbursement of Security Related Expenditure, for expenditure incurred by the States for combating terrorist/ militant extremist activities.

Prevention of Terrorism Ordinance, 2001, has been promulgated under which 23 organizations have been listed as Terrorist Organizations.

In the wake of 11 September attacks in USA, the State Governments/Union territories have been advised to strengthen security around the vital installations. Review of VVIP security has been undertaken. Security of airports, aircrafts etc. has been strengthened. The State Governments have been requested to gear up collection in intelligence with regard to sabotage, subversive activities attempts to disturb communal harmony. The State Government/UTs have also been requested to keep contingency plans in readiness to deal with any eventuality.

India has also apprised the international community of Pakistan's sponsorship of and support to terrorism directed against India. There is now widespread international recognition of the need to eradicate terrorism wherever it exists and that there can be no justification for terrorism.
